CAPE HENRY. The Finest Ship in the Navy-Steamship Kotes- Religious Matters-

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] Norroles, May 16, 1887.

The body of a white satior wished ashere at Life Saving Station No. 1, near Cape Henry, yesterday afternoon. The body appeared to be that of a Swede or body appeared to be that of a Swede or Norwegian, about thirty years of age, and was dressed in dark clothes, white-flaunel underelothing, and a heavy pair of sea-men's boots. The only mark found was that of a small blue anchor tatooed in the back of the left hand. The body was tadly decomposed, and was quickly buried back of the left hand. The body was tadly decomposed, and was quickly buried where found by Captain Johnson, assisted by the light-house keepers. At moon to-day the United States flugship Trenton formally went into commission at the ravy-yard. The Trenton is now the

A CIRL WITH GRIT. a Southern Maiden Forced ! Standerer to Betract His Words.

(Savannah News.)
The young schoolulstress at Trenton The young schoolmistress at Trenton, Ga., Miss Childres, is very pretty and bright, and quite a belle. A young man from a neighboring village made a desperate effect to win her favor; but she dislikes him very much. A few days ago he began to circulate damaging reports about the young lady, which resulted in a nice bit of scaudal in the little town.

The stories finally came to the young lady's cars. Thoroughly enraged, she borrowed a shotgun, mounted a borse, and went in quest of her traducer, whom she found in his store surrounded by a large number of his friends. Cocking both bir-number of bis friends. Cocking both bur-rels of her shotgun, which was loaded with buckshot, she pointed it at his head and said: "You villam! Acknowledge before these gentlemen that you have lied about and shandered me and that there is no truth in anything you have said, or I will this instant blow out your brains."

The young man, amid the mockery of his companions, premptly acknowledged all that was demanded of him admitting that be had knowledged shadered the young lady, who immediately left, escorted by apartments of the control of th

THE STANDARD-BRED STALLION ELYSIAN ABBALLAH WILL make miles from Richmond on Richmond, Fredeounty, on the following terms; $25 for the sea son, payance invariancy at times service, was all to the groom. Season begins March I, 1887—
ELYSIAN ABDALLAH was foaled in 1874, the property of Charles S. Dole, Esq., of Crystal Lake, Illimois, and is entered in Wallace's Stad-Rock as standard bred, with the number 1821. He was got by Lakeland Abdallah; he by Ryskyk's Hambletonian out of Euchautress, which makes him full brether to Harold, the sire of Maud S. The dam of ELYSIAN AB-DALLAH is the mare Boving Nellic, by Cassilas M. Clay (Strader's), better known as being the dam of Mamurino Roy, record 2239. His second dam is by Ferthure, 326; third dam by Rattler, 260c; fourth dam by imported Spread Eggle. The breeding, therefore, of this fine horse is emphatically gilteduc. His sire is by the same horse that got Volunteer, George Wikes, Happy Medium, Harold, Dictator, Strathmore, Aberdeen, Sentinel, Thorndaie, &c., and the sire of his dam is also the sire and grandeire of a long array of trotters and troting stallows, such as Harry Clay, Euvay, Post Boy, Durango, Kentucky Clay, American Clay, and many others of high standard. Through the hertham mare he gets a cross of the Lady Stout blood. He is jet black in colon, the sixe and though stylish and spirited in action, is of the kindest and most travitable temper that would be possible to find in any horse, and es-ally in a stallion.

The LOT fronts 20x15 to a 20-foot alley, and has water and culvert connection. It is well set in fruits, grapes, &c. A more desirable home cannot be secured of its kind on this popular thoroughfare.

TERMS: One fourth cash; balance in six, twelve, and eighteen mouths, with 6 per cent interest added. solid, original ground, and on a level win toe street.

This is now the most desirable large lot on Grace street. It has long been steadily increasing in value, and must, because of its choice location, continue to do so, independently of any speculative demand. It is susceptible of advantations subdivision for home sites, is well suited in size and location for a church, and, at the moderate price now expected, affords a good margin for speculation, whether the "boom" comes or not.
